1350/14 Radio call - 1700 Whitley - Motel 6 - r/p reports a civil 10 dispute between the manager and a room guest. Upon arrival, we contacted the guest who stated that he left some of his personal belongings inside the room and when he returned the items were missing.

Manager stated that the guest would have to contact the Cooperate offices and report the matter.

1430/16 Radio call - 6233 Hollywood - Pantages Theater - r/p reports
00 a m/b/a outside the location - sitting on the sidewalk - blocking pedestrian traffic. Upon arrival, we observed LAFD were code 6 and were standing by a m/b/a lying on his back in front of the location on Hollywood Blvd.

The Fire Captain asked us if we had a Tazer, and stated that they were standing by for LAPD to respond to our location. The Fire Captain stated that when they arrived they observed the subject run across Hollywood Blvd and then return back to them and then he laid down on the Blvd.

After standing by for several minutes, the subject (unknown) jumped up and started to approach in my general direction.
Officer Mooney wrapped his arms around the subjects waist securing the subjects arms and we both directed him to the ground lying face down.

Officers Cox and Shamoyan (Boy 2) arrived and assisted with restraining the subject until LAPD arrived and took over the detention along with LAFD

ADDITIONAL

After the struggle I observed Officer Mooney walk inside the theater ticket area. He appeared to be short of breath and he told me he was over heated.

I walked him inside the ticket area to a cooler location and had him sit down. I contacted the LAFD Fire Captain and advised him of Officers Mooney's present condition along with his past medical history. LAFD Paramedics at the scene checked Mooney's blood pressure and administered Oxygen while checking his vitals. Officer Mooney completed his patrol shift at 2030 hours.

During the struggle with the subject, Officer Mooney's personal watch band was broken and the watch was lost. We attempted to locate the watch with negative results. (Casio watch appox $60.00 in value)
